

Please Joins Us to Remember Those Lost

On September 11, 2001, the United States was attacked by terrorists. The collapse of the Twin Towers, the attack on the Pentagon, and the crash of Flight 93 in Shanksville, Pennsylvania, took the lives of 2,977 people. Those lost included 343 NY firefighters and paramedics, 23 NYPD officers, and 37 Port Authority police officers; 184 people at the Pentagon, including 64 passengers and crew aboard American Airlines Flight 77 and 120 military personnel and civilians; and 40 passengers and crew members aboard Flight 93, who fought back against the hijackers.

We will Never Forget
